Yes, please move it to the Ody forum. The horse has been kicked to death. I've seen plenty of offers to follow through with help and I hope the issue is resolved quickly.

Quickie... How appropriate!
 No one goes to the quickie site! If you truly want to help go to Home To Pilot's And Odyssey's because ALL the history has been moved to the visitor section so you don't even have to use a fake name to post!
 I only saw blame games and offers of help second or third hand? Direct questions were sidestepped! Still don't know how or whwere my big hiem thing is supposed to be adjusted?
 See ya on the real pilot odyssey board!
Home To Pilot's And Odyssey's where I saved this thread as a pdf file as I am sure the mods here will cave toi the few and far between who whine about this!

TT, I think the comment about caving is completely unnecessary. You really need to think about how your message is received.
 Unlike some boards, this one is not run by meglomaniacal sociopaths bent on blocking, banning and beating. We are an alliterative group who prefer to manage, mentor and mash members to conform to our civil, comtemplative and conditional rules of membership.

Alliteration works best in threes. 😊

Oh Gene, richard has threatened to ban me so many times its not even funny anymore!
 I posted a video about a wreck I survived and atvmutt posted a snide remark and opened up this can of worms again! That's just his style, notice several other snide remarks directed at me in this thread alone! If ya'lls hoser envy is so rampant you can't see thru to that then I really don't know what to tell you! You have stooped to their level with the namecalling so we can mark up a win for the darkside!
 Grown men acting like this how funny!

I actually read this entire thread...It was listed under Crash and Burn. Turns out it is more Crash and Bitch. The driver is not dead, and maybe the fabed parts weren't perfect. So be it. We are supposed to be here to help each other out, and maybe bench race. If I wanted to soil my mind with this much negativity, I'd spend another weekend with my in-laws. Just my opinion, but I am fairly sure I am not alone. Go out, and get back to ridin' or racin'.

I am only able to read the visitors section I still cannot post so I can see why you would want to go there. again one more time lets take this to the quickie board as the real pilot odyssey board is dead. If you do not want to meet up there then this subject is resolved and will be considered dead. Any further action by you will be considered hostile and treated as so

I am therefore I race 😊

Oh come on jeff we all know you come over to the only remaining pilot odyssey board!
You are so imature but thank you so much for the laugh! Ask hoodlum/rooky/redman how easy it was to catch him playing childish games posing as someone else!
You can view the thread on how we busted him in the visitors area too! No doubt you have read it!
With the talent we have on Home To Pilot's And Odyssey's your fake name won't be hard to find either! Ask bugpac/reggie how he got busted spying on us in. The chatroom! Lol we used to make stuff up just to catch you trolls! Ask steve about his .009 cylinder wall clearances! Lol I will ask hoser if you have been banned under your atvnut handle but I bet not! Your name would be a different color if iut was!
So I take it by your childish threat I should be expecting a letter or phone call from the michigan states attorneys office?
I politely asked you to stay out of my conversation with steve, and even asked the moderators to do the same, as I have been requested/demanded to stay out of steves but I can see I am up against a loaded deck! Lol I don't mind! You're not much of a challenge intelectually! Every time you post you belittle yourself and aftershock motorsports!
Have a good evening!

Turbotexas. (that's not name calling - I'm just repeating the name you have chosen - so don't blame me if it suddenly seems stupid to you too).

I don't know why you come on here telling us you and others publish made up material on a site that people go to for help. People that are untruthful don't impress me.

I don't know why you widely publish the fact you cannot get a suspension kit to work (even with the help of others you say know what they are doing) when plenty of others can.

I don't know why you think a kit like the one you bought should be guaranteed to be idiot proof.

I don't know why you make so much of a crash that seems to me (based on what you have published) to be one that wouldn't have happened if the pilot handled well and had decent suspension and you could drive it with a reasonable level of skill and judgement.

I do know you are a pain.

I am glad your pilot did not have any Aftershock items fitted at the time of the crash. Although the crash may not have happened if Aftershock suspension had been fitted, I suspect the Aftershock item (whatever it may have been) would probably have been blamed for the crash.

The reason I have not gone to the imposters pilot site for years is to avoid people like you. I can see you would fit in well there. The real pilot site was much better after the imposter and some of his followers left. It was a shame the real site closed.

I really think your life and those of others would be happier if you stayed at the site you love so much. I'll promise not to go there. I like it here lots more when it is not littered with threads like this one.
